OKLAHOMA SECRETARY
OF STATE

STATE OF OKLAHOMA

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT

Proclamation

Whereas, the family is the foundational institution of society, ordained by God, and is the cornerstone of a healthy and thriving society; and

Whereas, families continue to be the most central social circle that a person can experience, putting great importance on the practice of consistent, intentional quality time; and

Whereas, the health and strength of the average family determines the path of society, and greatly relies on the strength and determination of fathers, the love and wisdom of mothers, and the joyful presence of children; and

Whereas, Oklahoma views children as a gift to their parents and a joy to society, and for these children, quality family time continues to be a determining factor in positive social outcomes from general behavior to school grades, and even career aspirations; and

Whereas, the strength and security of a healthy home life provides confidence and encouragement to all members of a household; and

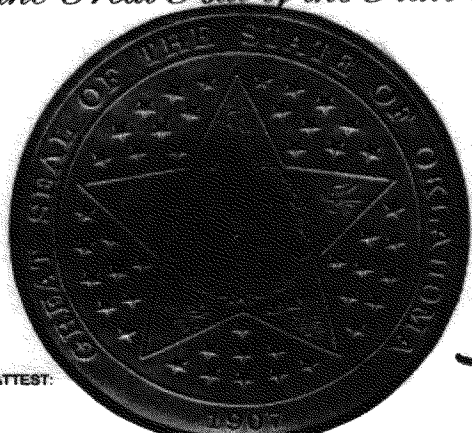

Whereas, in an effort to encourage families to embrace quality time and regular family meals, events, and activities, the State of Oklahoma is declaring November as 'Family Month';

Now Therefore, I, Governor J. Kevin Stitt, do hereby proclaim November, 2023, as

"Oklahoma Family Month"

in the State of Oklahoma

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Oklahoma to be affixed.

Done at the Capitol, in the City of Oklahoma City, this twenty sixth day of October, in the Year of Our Lord two thousand and twenty three, and of the State of Oklahoma in the one-hundred and fifteenth year.
